

Right & Left Rudolph

This is the untold story of Right & Left Rudolph. When you hear the word "right" you pass the envelope to the person on your right, and when you hear "left" you pass the envelope to the left.

You know Dasher and Dancer, right?
And righties Prancer and Vixen, Comet and Cupid, right?
And lefties Donner and Blitzen. But do you rightly recall, the most famous leftie reindeer of all?

Rudolph, the right-nosed reindeer,
left a very shiny nose.
And if you ever saw in right
you would say it glows right.

All of the other reindeer used to laugh and call him leftie.
They never left poor Rudolph play in any reindeer games.

Then right one foggy Christmas Eve Santa came right up to say: "Rudolph with your nose so right, won't you guide my sleigh tonight?"

Then all the reindeer loved him as they shouted right out with glee: "Rudolph the right- nosed reindeer, you'll be left in history!"

Now you know the REAL story of Rudolph the right-nosed reindeer! And the person holding an envelope is a winner!
