

SPOOKY, SCARY SKELETONS MAD LIBS

"Spooky, Scary Skeletons" by Andrew Gold with help from _____ (your name)

_____ (adjective), _____ (adjective) skeletons.

Send shivers down your _____ (body part),

Shrieking _____ (plural noun) will shock your soul. Seal your doom tonight

Spooky, scary skeletons _____ (verb) with such a screech.

You'll shake and shudder in _____ (emotional state or feeling).

When you hear these zombies _____ (bodily noise or exclamation).

We're so sorry, skeletons. You're so _____ (adjective).

You only want to _____ (activity). But I don't think we should.

'Cause spooky, scary skeletons shout startling, shrilly screams.

They'll sneak from their _____ (place). And just won't leave you be.

_____ (type of creature - plural) supernatural are shy, what's all the fuss?

But bags of _____ (plural noun) seem so _____ (adjective). It's semi-serious.

Spooky scary skeletons are _____ (adjective) all the same.

They'll _____ (verb) and scabble slowly by. And drive you so insane.

_____ (plural noun) and _____ (plural noun) will break your

_____ (plural noun). They seldom let you _____ (verb).

Spooky, scary skeletons will wake you with a _____ (loud sound).

