

The background of the menu is a dark red, atmospheric illustration of a Halloween night. It features a large, glowing yellow full moon in the upper left, with several black silhouettes of bats flying across the sky. In the center, there is a dark, multi-towered house with several windows that are lit from within, casting a warm yellow glow. To the left and right of the house are bare, black trees. In the foreground, there is a dark, silhouetted landscape with a fence and a tombstone on the right side. The tombstone is dark with the letters 'RIP' inscribed on it in a lighter color. The overall mood is spooky and festive.
