

GRINCHMAS COOKIES

A Christmas Left Right Story

T'was the Night RIGHT before Christmas,
And the Who's were all beaming
Just hours LEFT before Santa's visit,
The whole town was singing!

But there was one in Whoville,
Who used to dread this day,
No Christmas gifts to give or get
LEFT a Grinch feeling very gray.

But all that changed last Christmas,
When his heart grew and grew
The Who's were RIGHT to celebrate,
The Grinch knew just what he'd do!

Grinch and Max got RIGHT to work
A sweet surprise they'd make,
A special treat for each Who friend
Christmas cookies they would bake!

RIGHT through the night they baked
And baked and baked some more,
Max counted the cookies LEFT to RIGHT,
They'd made five hundred and four!

One batch of cookies LEFT to make,
They'd baked all through the night.
Frosting and decorating each cookie,
Making sure each was just RIGHT!

RIGHT as the last batch was done,
The sun was beginning to show
Not much time LEFT to deliver
A homemade gift to each Who's door!

Grinch quickly loaded up his sleigh,
"ALRIGHT Max, let's go!"
And raced RIGHT down to the little town, not even minding the snow!

"RIGHT, Just a few more houses LEFT!"
Grinch smiled at the thought.
"Each Who in Whoville, will know
That I like them all quite a lot!"

Only one cookie LEFT, Cindy Lou's, and a note that simply read,
"A Very Merry Christmas to you,
Thank you for being my friend!"
