

A Holiday for Turkey?

Hi there! My name is _____, and I'm a turkey! I am _____ years old, and I live on a big farm with lots of other turkeys. We hang out together all day long, _____ at the _____ for food. We love to look for big juicy _____, _____, and _____.

There's a farmer named _____ who looks after us. Every day he brings us big pails of _____ to drink, and sometimes he gives us treats of _____ or _____.

Yesterday he told us all about a big holiday that's coming up- and it's for TURKEYS! He didn't explain it too much- so that's got all of us turkeys talking and wondering:

What's a turkey holiday like? Is it like going on a vacation? Will I need to pack my _____? Will we be going to the beach? If so I want to make sure that I don't forget my _____!

How will we get there? Will we travel in a _____ or a _____? And will we see any famous people like _____ or _____?

I wish we knew more about this big holiday for turkeys! And why the farmer keeps telling up to "fatten up"?

I guess we'll find out soon!
