Travelling On the Sea of Life

*Birth is a beginning
and death a destination
The journey is on the sea of life.
From childhood onto,
Whatever age we are called home,
Guided by the beacons of God's love
To the lighthouse in the sky.
We see that victory lies,
Not at some high point along the wa,
but in having made the journey.
Step by step a secret pilgrimage.
Birth is a beginning,
And death a destination.
And the journey is sacred,
To the safe harbor of Life everlasting.*
