

1. Fold over the paper on the dotted line. Only look at this side.
2. Fill in the blanks with examples of each part of speech.
3. Unfold the paper and fill in the blanks in the story with the words you wrote on this side.

NOUN _____

ADJECTIVE _____

PLURAL NOUN _____

NAME OF PERSON _____

VERB _____

ADJECTIVE _____

NOUN _____

ADJECTIVE _____

VERB _____

VERB ENDING IN -ING _____

VERB ENDING IN -ING _____

ADJECTIVE _____

PROPER NOUN _____

NOUN _____

ADVERB _____

ADJECTIVE _____

PLURAL NOUN _____

Christmas cookies

A MAD LIB STORY

By _____

My favorite part of the Christmas season is baking cookies with my

_____ The _____ cookies have _____ mixed
NOUN ADJECTIVE PLURAL NOUN
 throughout the dough. _____ always tells me not to _____
NAME OF PERSON VERB
 too much dough before we bake it, but I just can't help myself! It's so
 _____ ! Next, we put the cookies in the _____. Make sure
ADJECTIVE NOUN
 not to make it too _____ or the cookies will _____. I love
ADJECTIVE VERB
 _____ my favorite Christmas songs while the cookies bake, such as
VERB ENDING IN -ING
 " _____ Around the _____ Tree" and " _____ the
VERB ENDING IN -ING ADJECTIVE PROPER NOUN
 Snowman." When the _____ dings, we put the cookies out to cool.
NOUN
 Then, we _____ put them on _____ plates and deliver
ADVERB ADJECTIVE them to our _____.
PLURAL NOUN