

Garage Sale To Do List

Setting the Date & Getting Started

- Check if there is a citywide garage sale
- Set Garage Sale Date
- See if friends/family want to participate with you or give you stuff to sell

Finding Stuff to Sell

- Go through closets
- Go through basement/storage
- Go through kid's rooms
- Go through Garage
- Go through Family Room / Living Room / Entertainment Areas
- Go through Attic

Getting Stuff Ready

- Put everything in one place (make a massive pile of stuff to sell)
- Set prices and label everything
- Contact others about borrowing card/display tables
- Pick up tables you are borrowing
- Create signs making it easy for shoppers (i.e. All T-Shirts are size S/M, $0.50 per book, etc.)
- Get Quarters, nickels, dimes, etc. from the bank

Advertising

- Newspaper
- Craigslist
- Buy colorful signs to put near intersections the day of your sale

Bonus

- Fill a cooler full of pop/water/Gatorade, etc. to sell
- Fill a cooler full of pop/water/Gatorade, etc. to sell

Day Of the Sale

- Wake up early and have stuff displayed at an early hour - people like to shop early
- Post your signs at intersections
- Put ice in cooler (if you are selling pop/water/etc.)
- Be safe! Do not let anyone into your house, have two people working, etc.
- Have Fun!

After the Sale

- Donate everything that's left for a tax write-off
- Return the tables you borrowed
- Book a vacation with your earnings...ent...I mean put your money in savings!
