

QUESTION

10/10/2020

	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4
QUESTION What is the difference between a primary and a secondary source?
ANSWER A primary source is a document or artifact created at the time of the event or by someone who was directly involved in it. A secondary source is a document or artifact created after the event, often based on research or interpretation of primary sources.
QUESTION What is the difference between a primary and a secondary source?
ANSWER A primary source is a document or artifact created at the time of the event or by someone who was directly involved in it. A secondary source is a document or artifact created after the event, often based on research or interpretation of primary sources.
QUESTION What is the difference between a primary and a secondary source?
ANSWER A primary source is a document or artifact created at the time of the event or by someone who was directly involved in it. A secondary source is a document or artifact created after the event, often based on research or interpretation of primary sources.
QUESTION What is the difference between a primary and a secondary source?
ANSWER A primary source is a document or artifact created at the time of the event or by someone who was directly involved in it. A secondary source is a document or artifact created after the event, often based on research or interpretation of primary sources.				