GINGERBREAD STICKS

A holiday gingerbread cookie from Hey Yo Yo

MAKES 9-12 DOZEN STICKS (3/4 INCH WIDE X 5-7 INCHES LONG)

- 1/2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon ginger
- 1/4 teaspoon cloves
- 2 tablespoons baking powder
- 3/4 cup dark molasses
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 3/4 cup butter (may substitute part shortening to first spreading)
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 1 tablespoon hot water

This dough works great for all gingerbread
cutouts too.
Bake 12-15
minutes.

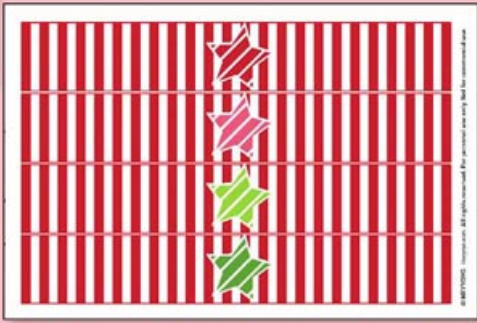

1. Sift together first 6 dry ingredients in large bowl. Set aside.
2. In medium saucepan, heat molasses and brown sugar over low heat. Add butter and stir until melted. Quickly stir in beaten egg. Add soda/water mixture, stir until well combined. Add heated mixture to sifted dry ingredients. Stir with a spoon just until mixed.
3. Divide dough into 3 portions and form into flat (1.5 inch thick) rectangles. Wrap with plastic wrap and refrigerate at least 3 hours or up to 3 days.
4. Preheat an oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Grease baking sheets.
5. Roll the dough out on a floured work surface with a rolling pin to about
