

Now then my dear, I'm writing you this quick note to say thank you for letting me know what presents you want this year. I have already passed your list on to my elves, so that they can set about looking for everything on it. However my dear, I must warn you that I can't make any promises because every now and then I run out of things. On the other hand, I shall try my very best to bring you what you've asked for, especially as you've been so good.

My reindeer and I are really looking forward to dropping off your gifts on Christmas Eve, so do make sure you're sound asleep!

Lots of love,
Father Christmas x
