

MATH/NUMBER AWARENESS

Counting the groups. How many different kinds of animals do you have? How many of each kind? How many of each kind? How many of each kind?

There are _____ roosters than pigs.
 There are _____ cows than chickens.
 The number of cows is _____ the number of roosters.

Math Skills
 This activity is a good way to practice counting and comparing numbers. It also helps to understand the relationship between numbers and the objects they represent.

MATH/NUMBER AWARENESS

Counting the groups. How many different kinds of animals do you have? How many of each kind? How many of each kind? How many of each kind?

There are _____ birds than eggs.
 There are _____ butterflies than ducks.
 There are _____ ducks than birds.

Math Skills
 This activity is a good way to practice counting and comparing numbers. It also helps to understand the relationship between numbers and the objects they represent.

MATH/NUMBER AWARENESS

Counting the groups. How many different kinds of animals do you have? How many of each kind? How many of each kind? How many of each kind?

There are _____ birds than eggs.
 There are _____ butterflies than ducks.
 The number of birds is _____ the number of horses.

Math Skills
 This activity is a good way to practice counting and comparing numbers. It also helps to understand the relationship between numbers and the objects they represent.