

FEELINGS

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I did not die.

OBITUARY

Janet Cook, 70, left us on November 8, 2012, with her family by her side at Harbor View Healthcare Center.

She was born May 1, 1942, in Fargo to Charles and Helen Williams. She graduated from Fargo High School in 1960 and received a degree from the University of North Dakota, where she met and married John (Jim) Williams. They returned to Minn. Mrs. Williams worked at many a variety retail businesses and she and Jim had a career in technology. Fargo was her life.

Her interests included hiking, gardening, singing and reading. She devoted much of her retirement energy into projects in Fargo, including the church and school and neighborhood improvement projects.

Mrs. Cook is survived by her sons, Nicholas (Nicolas) and John (John) Williams. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, November 15, 2012, at 11:00 a.m. at the funeral home. Burial will be in the Garden of the Cross at the same time. The family will receive the following from 10 to 12:30 p.m. on Thursday.
