

Money Matters	Personal Growth	Social Relationships
What is my current income? In what ways can I make this increase?	What do I want to accomplish this year on a personal level?	How do I like to grow in relating to my friends in 2015?
What is my savings account? In what ways can I save more money this year?	What is my strategy to achieve my personal growth goal?	What are some practical ways I can use their influence in my life?
How much debt do I have? In what ways can I eliminate a sizeable portion of it (or all of it)?	What different skills are needed for my overall personal growth goal?	What relationships in my life? What will I do this year to improve them?
How often am I giving regularly? If not, in what way can I give financially this year?		How can I encourage them? What will I do to help them this year?
Career	Physical and Mental Health	Family Life
What are my career goals in 2015? What level do I want to reach in my career?	In what way would I like to be healthier by December of 2015?	How can we as a couple strengthen our relationship?
What changes could I make in the coming year that would help me reach my career goals?	What are some tangible, daily choices I can add to my life that will improve my health?	How much time for each other? How will we spend this time together?
What knowledge do I need to acquire to achieve my career goals? Any training programs?	What are some possible resources I would need to help me improving my health?	How is our living space working for my family? What changes are needed?
What obstacles can I expect that could prevent me from improving my health in 2015?		What is on my mind? What needs to happen to make this a reality?