

...when we find someone whose weirdness is compatible with ours, we join up with them and fall in mutual weirdness and call it love.

