

This Location Has Gone Days Without a Loss Time Accident

OSHA 300 Log
Employee Injuries
OSHA 300 Log
This form is used to record and summarize work-related injuries, illnesses, and fatalities that result in lost work time or restricted activity or loss of consciousness.

General Safety Policy
This document outlines the company's commitment to safety and health, including the goal of zero lost time accidents. It details the responsibilities of management and employees, and describes the safety program's structure and objectives.

Summary of Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses
This summary provides a detailed overview of the company's injury and illness data, including the number of incidents, the types of injuries, and the associated costs. It also includes information on the company's safety performance and the steps being taken to prevent future incidents.

All Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses Must be Reported Immediately
This section emphasizes the importance of reporting all work-related injuries and illnesses immediately to the supervisor. It outlines the reporting process and the consequences of failing to report an incident.

OSHA Personal Protective Equipment
This document provides information on the types of personal protective equipment (PPE) required for various tasks and the proper use and maintenance of this equipment. It includes a checklist for ensuring that all workers have the necessary PPE.

OSHA 300 Log
This is a copy of the OSHA 300 Log for the current year, showing the recorded injuries and illnesses. The log is a key component of the company's safety record and is used to track and analyze safety performance.

OSHA 300 Log
This is another copy of the OSHA 300 Log, providing a detailed record of the company's safety incidents and the steps taken to address them.

OSHA 300 Log
This is a third copy of the OSHA 300 Log, showing the company's commitment to transparency and accountability in reporting safety incidents. It includes information on the investigation process and the corrective actions taken.

OSHA FactSheet
This fact sheet provides essential information about OSHA's role in enforcing workplace safety and health regulations. It includes details on the types of violations that can result in citations and the potential penalties for non-compliance.

OSHA Safety Meeting Schedule
This schedule outlines the frequency and topics of safety meetings held at the location. It ensures that all workers receive regular safety training and updates on the company's safety program.

OSHA Safety Meeting Schedule
This is another copy of the safety meeting schedule, highlighting the company's commitment to ongoing safety education and training for all employees.

Emergency Dial 911 or
This section provides critical information for emergency situations, including the location's address, phone number, and the names of key personnel. It also includes instructions on how to use the emergency dial system.

OSHA 300 Log
This is a fourth copy of the OSHA 300 Log, providing a comprehensive record of the company's safety performance and the steps taken to improve it.

Job Safety and Health
It's the Law!
This poster features the OSHA logo and the slogan "Job Safety and Health It's the Law!". It includes information on the company's safety program and the importance of following safety rules to protect workers' health and well-being.