

Silly Valentine Letter

Without reading the letter, ask a friend to tell you a word that fits each description to fill in the blank. Once the blanks are filled, read the letter aloud and have a good laugh!

My dear yummy Valentine, adjective

You are so cold and scrunchy. When I see you, I feel like cheerios. You smell like m&m's. It's not much, but I want to give you the new church just to show you how much I like you.
cold cereal kind of candy famous building

Would you like to go to earth with me on Valentine's day? There is a great restaurant there. They serve birthday salad, marshmallows soup, and chocolate sandwiches.
planet kind of cake kind of candy favorite chocolate

There is also a fun center where kids can swim in the milk pool, and all the windows look like circles. There is brown cookie hockey and cheese gumball bowling.
