

The Little Red Hen Worksheet

1. Write at the top of the page what chicken the right word for fill the gaps in the sentences.

hen    egg    milk    bread

1. The hen is _____ the egg.
2. The hen gives us _____ milk.
3. The hen gives us _____ the bread.
4. The hen gives us _____ the milk.

2. Match the word to the picture by drawing a line between them.

 A	 B	 C	 D	 E
1 hen 	2 egg 	3 milk 	4 bread 	5 bread

3. Match the two halves of each sentence.

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| a. The hen can't walk, can't fly, can't see. b. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. c. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. d. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. | 1. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. 2. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. 3. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. 4. The hen can't see, can't fly, can't walk. |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

4. Match the words to the pictures.

- |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| a. The hen gives us the bread to eat. b. The hen gives us the milk to drink. c. The hen gives us the egg to eat. | 1. The hen gives us the bread to eat. 2. The hen gives us the milk to drink. 3. The hen gives us the egg to eat. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

5. Write the sentences in the correct order, numbering them from 1 to 5.

- |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| a. The hen gives us the bread to eat. b. The hen gives us the milk to drink. c. The hen gives us the egg to eat. | 1. The hen gives us the bread to eat. 2. The hen gives us the milk to drink. 3. The hen gives us the egg to eat. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|