

Christmas Love Poem

Merry Christmas, Sweetheart with you is where I want to be Yet it seems our lives are complicated for I am the one not free,

Yet the very best present is the gift of ones self I have given you a part of me that has never belonged to anyone else.

So we can't be together this Christmas yet our souls are not apart for I have given you the best part of me I have given you my heart.
