

FEEL SIGGS

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I did not die.

OBITUARY

Jana Cox, 70, left us on November 8,
2012, with her family by her side at
Walton Bridge Healthcare Center.

Jana was born May 1, 1942 in Tallahassee, Florida and lived in Tallahassee. She graduated from Tallahassee High School in 1960 and attended college at the University of South Florida, where she met and married John Cox. After graduation, they returned to Tallahassee. She took pride in being a mother and homemaker while her husband pursued a career in broadcasting, which he did.

Her interests included fishing, gardening, writing and reading. She devoted much of her time and energy as a caregiver to family members. She shared and enjoyed religious and group activities.

Mrs. Cox is survived by her sister, Tallahassee Christmas brother, John Williams; 3 sons and their spouses, Jeff and Tammy Smith, William and Corinne Jones; 8 grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren. She spent her second five relaxing years in the company of her 4 siblings.
