

Our Family's Official Minecraft Constitution

We, the undersigned, agree to abide by the following rules of Minecraft while living in our parents' house:

1. No stealing from friends or family members' chests.
2. No killing friends or siblings in Minecraft.
3. No trapping unless you are in a designated trapping world. And if you get trapped and accidentally killed in a designated trapping world, no crying about it.

If You Break the Rules of Minecraft in our House:

The punishment is a minimum of 168 hours of Minecraft Banishment. (That's 7 days, folks!)

Anyone who accidentally kills somebody can request a special court hearing to make a formal appeal. The ruling of the judge on duty is final (whether it is a babysitter, mom, dad, or any other adult in charge). If you are found guilty after an appeal the punishment will be a minimum of 168 hours plus an additional 48 hours for your dishonesty. (That's 9 days!) So don't appeal unless you think you can win it.
