

Night RIGHT Before Christmas

Twas the night RIGHT before Christmas when RIGHT through the house. Not a creature was LEFT stirring, not even a mouse--

The stockings were hung RIGHT by the chimney with care, in hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be RIGHT there.

The children were nestled RIGHT snug in their beds, while visions of sugarplums danced RIGHT in their heads. And mama in her kerchief, and I in my cap, had just settled RIGHT down for a long winter's nap.

When RIGHT out on the LEFT lawn there rose such a clatter, I sprang RIGHT from my bed to see what was the matter.

When, what to my wondering eyes should appear, but a miniature sleight and eight tiny reindeer. With a little old driver RIGHT lively and quick; I knew RIGHT in a moment it must be St. Nick.

More rapid than eagles his coursers they came; and he whistled and shouted, and called them RIGHT by name: "Now, Dasher! Now, Dancer! Now, Prancer and Vixen! On Comet, on Cupid, on Donder and Blitzen! To the RIGHT top of the porch! To the LEFT top of the wall! Now dash away, dash away, dash RIGHT away all!"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly when they meet RIGHT with an obstacle, mount RIGHT up to the sky. So up to the housetop the coursers they LEFT flew, with a sleigh full of toys and St. Nicholas, too.

And then in a twinkling, I heard RIGHT on the roof, the prancing and pawing of each little RIGHT and LEFT hoof. As I drew in my head and was turning LEFT around down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.
