

Dotty and the Necklace

Complete the story by writing in the empty boxes below.

Dotty asks permission to borrow her mother's pearl necklace for the school dance.

Dotty's mom says, "It's a family heirloom that my mom gave me when I graduated from high school. You can wear it when you're a little older, but not yet."

Dotty sneaks into her mother's room and takes the necklace out of her mother's jewelry box.

