

Dear Ms [redacted]

LovingFromADistance.com

This is a official document.
Mr. [redacted] was in my office today and has instructed me to write this contract for the good of your future.

I, [redacted], do solemnly swear, that I will love Ms [redacted] for the rest of my life, and I will stay with her for richer or poorer, sickness and health. I will cherish her and always be fair. That there will be no other women in my life and I will stay true to her. I will build a good family and raise them in good health, physically and morally. I will not give up through the hard times nor the good times. I will support her and help her in anyway I can. Overall I will always have true love and faith, nothing else for her character, heart, all of her being.
