

Family Reunion Jeopardy Plan

Categories

WHEN "HE" WAS A LITTLE GIRL	SUGAR & SPICE	HAPPILY EVER AFTER	WHO DONE IT?	YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU
The location where Mazel attended school until 7th grade	The dangerous ailment that was healed, but resulted in Mel's needing glasses	The number of years Mazel and Melda courted	Once (gently) sat on the lap of a primary child to teach him to stay in his chair	If a job is worth doing, it is worth doing right
The distance Mazel rode a horse each day to get to 8th grade in Kooshareem	The disease that kept Melda's family in quarantine for an entire summer	family members who attended Mazel & Melda's wedding	Once trapped a mouse in his/her pant leg	The value of hard work
Mazel's main competition for the best grades in school	The skill Melda taught herself at age 12 (Used at home and in church callings)	The street name and price of Mazel & Melda's first home	Once chased a mouse around the house with a broom (while naked) after it interrupted his/her bath	You are supposed to go to church—even when it snows!
The reason Mazel started school six weeks late each year of high school	Melda's first job	The method Melda used to escape the old chicken coop when she was accidentally locked in	Once slipped in the attic and put his/her leg through the ceiling	What is important is not how much money you make, but what kind of work you do
Mazel's first job & the amount he was paid per day	The place Melda worked while attending Henager Business School	Mazel's last church calling	His/her life was drastically changed by rheumatic fever	Though the body may be feeble & the memory weak, the lessons and habits of a lifetime never really leave us

Questions

WHEN "HE" WAS A LITTLE GIRL	SUGAR & SPICE	HAPPILY EVER AFTER	WHO DONE IT?	YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU
The little red schoolhouse	Ulcers on her eyes	The number of years Mazel and Melda courted	Once (gently) sat on the lap of a primary child to teach him to stay in his chair	If a job is worth doing, it is worth doing right
7 Miles	The measles	The number of family members who attended Mazel & Melda's wedding	Once trapped a mouse in his/her pant leg	The value of hard work
Melda DeLange	Playing the piano	and price of Mazel & Melda's first home	Once chased a mouse around the house with a broom (while naked) after it interrupted his/her bath	You are supposed to go to church—even when it snows!
He had to take care of the farm work in Salina	Post Office Worker	The method Melda used to escape the old chicken coop when she was accidentally locked in	Once slipped in the attic and put his/her leg through the ceiling	What is important is not how much money you make, but what kind of work you do
A teamster at a nearby ranch for a dollar a day	The Ballard Motor Company	Mazel's last church calling	His/her life was drastically changed by rheumatic fever	Though the body may be feeble & the memory weak, the lessons and habits of a lifetime never really leave us

Answers