

Rainbow Flowers for a Day

Came as light playing on raindrops falling from the blue skies.

Oh what a crown of beauties passerby could see.

*Showing a dazzling display of colors
embraced with wisdom above.*

The rainstorm leaves these flowers bowed but unbroken.

*Standing firm in the soil
of God's tender mercy.*

*They lift their lovely heads
up to the sky once more.*

Cynthia Ann Polk