

Reading Comprehension questions:

Read the following passage and then choose the correct answer:

Yesterday I had to get up at 5 in the morning! Normally on weekdays I get up at seven and watch some TV while I have breakfast, and then take the subway to work. I usually get to the office at around nine. But yesterday, which was Tuesday, I had to be at the airport at 6 AM to pick up my brother-in-law, who was flying in from Tenerife. I wasn't too happy to have to go to the airport so early.

He apologized and told me the 3:30 flight was the only one available and that he had to be in Madrid for an important meeting. I almost told him to take a taxi, but I didn't want to upset my sister. Today I'm back on my normal schedule, but I'm very tired. Maybe I can leave the office a little early. I don't think we'll be too busy today or during the rest of the week.

Next week will be different, though. The boss told us yesterday that we will be getting an important new client on Monday that will mean lots of work for everyone for at least two weeks, and then after that I have a week of vacation. Maybe I'll go to Tenerife and return my brother-in-law the favor!
