

A decorative border made of alternating black and white squares, arranged in a grid pattern that follows the perimeter of the page.

MY 2010-2011 MEMORY BOOK

Now the school year's over.
It's coming to an end.
I made some wonderful memories
and many new great friends.
I'd like to keep these memories
for quite a long, long time.
So I've made this little memory book
to keep them in my mind.
