

All your fine words
and all your good wishes will never replace
your help with the dishes