

 Notes

I loved you since the first time I knew you where here . I often dream about you, how you smile, laugh, cry .I'm afraid my biggest fear has come a reality so suddenly you slipped out of my life but made an impression in my heart that will never go away . so quickly you came and left , but the memories you made I never can forger All you ever you knew was love, my love. If love could have kept you here my darling , you would have stayed forever ... My life I would give just to see you face , to hold you in my arms. Please let me take your place. The day you left you took a piece with you , I will never be the same . My first baby , the pain Is unbearable with out you
