

Frosty the Snowman

Frosty the Snowman was a jolly happy soul
With a wooden grape-vine for a crown
And two speckled carrots for eyes.

Frosty the Snowman is a jolly-happy fellow
With a wooden grape-vine for a crown
With two speckled carrots for eyes.

There never was a more simple soul than old Frosty the Snowman
For when they gathered in the big house
He begged for _____ because

Frosty the Snowman was alive as he could be
And the _____ say he could laugh and play
Just like us and just like me.

Frosty the Snowman loves the snow more than that other
He loves and loves and loves it'll never never _____
This brother I must sing

Down to the village with a presentiment he has found
Revolving here and there all around the square
Singing merrily over all you _____

We left him there the winter and home
Right to the traffic cap
And he only passed a moment when
He found him back _____

Frosty the Snowman had the frost on his nose
But he uttered _____ saying don't you see
It'll be frost again some day

This party, this party, this party,
This party, this party, this party,
Look at Frosty's eye
This party, this party, this party,
This party, this party, this party,
Over the hills of snow.
