

Autumn Song

A.L.M.

P.B.O.

1. Song birds are fly - ing a - way to the
 2. Leaves have turned gold - en and pur - ple and south - land, For au - tumn's here. The or - ange, For au - tumn's here. The flow - ers have all gone to sleep un - til spring - time, For farm - ers are stor - ing their crops for the win - ter, For

au - tumn's here.
 au - tumn's here.

8. Suggested Action: Children pretend to be birds, flowers, leaves, and pumpkins, and act out the words.

all a - round. Leaves of yel - low, red, and brown are fall - ing down.

SUGGESTED ACTION: FINGER PLAY. As the leaves fall, the children pretend to be leaves falling and flying.

Dance, Leaves

Louise Abney

P.B.O.

1. Au - tumn leaves are danc - ing down, are danc - ing down, are
 2. Let the wind - whirl you round, Make a car - pet danc - ing down. Leaves of crim - son, gold and brown.

 for the ground. Soon you'll sleep with - out a sound.

Dance, leaves, dance!
 Sleep, leaves, sleep!

Words for this song first appeared as a poem, "Dance of the Leaves," by Louise Abney in Choral Speaking Arrangements for the Lower Grades by Louise Abney and Grace Rowe. Reprinted with permission of the publisher, Expression Co., Magnolia, Mass.