Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Lee, a farmer and stockman of same place, writes: "I used Electric Bitters to relieve the pain in my back and legs, and it has done more for me than any other medicine." Gardner, Ind., writes: "I used Electric Bitters to relieve the pain in my back and legs, and it has done more for me than any other medicine." Gardner, Ind., writes: "I used Electric Bitters to relieve the pain in my back and legs, and it has done more for me than any other medicine."

The title "Jordan" ends Volume 2 of the Cyclopedia, and is found a wonderful valuable information selecting the address space given to each of the clearness and correct commendable as above all others people. A feature of not found in any other Cyclopedia of all countries, etc., as found in a dictionary of interesting facts treated in the States of Kansas and Kentucky very full and brought close down to date. Knights of Labor, Latin Language and Literature, also biographical sketches of such noted and interesting characters as Josephus, Hannibal, Napoleon, and Kant, Clara L., George Kennan, Gen. Robert L. L., cannot be too highly commended for the families and young people who are reading and enjoying themselves. The low price, also, and comparison with any other cyclopedia of similar character and magnitude, is a gratifying feature. Specimen pages and terms will be sent on application by the Publisher, John D. Alden, New York, Chicago, and Atlanta.

The Christmas number of Godey's Lady's Book is here, and it is a gem worthy of the richest setting. This is a real Xmas gift, full of stories both great and gay, fashion, work designs, and general information suited to the season. Now is the time to subscribe. $3.00 three in the morning she had been awakened by a scraping on the lower panels of door. She had sat up in bed, rigid with horror, as the transom swung slowly open and a pair of big feet in red wool stockings shot through the opening, from the centreboard of each foot projected a slim and not wholly straight Ethiopian leg. The legs to the knees dangled against the white-china glass-painted door. Abiah's tongue cleve to the roof of her mouth. Was this a hideous hotel night-mare? She pitched herself. It happened with a supreme effort and with a gasp which she could not suppress.
