

The Leprechaun's Treasure

By _____
(your name)

It had rained for _____ days when finally (number)

I saw a rainbow. I _____ along until I (verb)

reached the end. I looked on top of the _____, (noun)

under the _____, and behind the _____.
(noun) (noun)

I knew if I found that _____ leprechaun, he would (adjective)
have to give me his pot of gold.

He was hiding around the _____. I grabbed (noun)
onto his _____ before he could get away.
(item of clothing)

"Hey!" he yelled. "Let me go before I _____ (verb)
your _____."
(noun)

"I know the deal," I _____. "If I catch a leprechaun, I (verb)
get his pot of gold."

"I don't have a pot of gold," he _____. "What I (verb)
have is better. I have a pot of _____."
(noun)

He was right. _____ is better. I carried my (noun) (noun)
treasure home.

