

I Caught A Leprechaun!

A fill-in-the-blank FREE PRINTABLE story

I Caught A Leprechaun!

Fill In The Story Blanks

1. A room in your house bedroom
2. Something you use to decorate glitter
3. Another room in your house living room
4. Another room in your house kitchen
5. Something you eat popcorn
6. A piece of furniture bed
7. Something small you play with Barbies
8. Another piece of furniture dresser
9. Something you use to cook pan
10. Something you find in the bathroom drawer comb
11. Another room in your house office
12. Something you do with paper write on
13. Something you do with string cut
14. Something you write in a note to your friend
15. Something fun to do by yourself play with
16. A feeling sad
17. The name of a family member TJ
18. A toy doll

I Caught A Leprechaun!

I woke one morning to find a mess in my 1. bedroom. Someone had left 2. glitter all over the floor! Over the next week the 3. living room and the 4. kitchen had 5. popcorn in the 6. bed and 7. Barbies in the 8. dresser. Since it was close to St. Patrick's Day, I figured this must be the work of a Leprechaun! I needed to catch this Leprechaun so that I could keep him from messing up my house again.

I grabbed my 9. pan and 10. comb and went to work setting up a trap. The 11. office seemed like the perfect place as the Leprechaun hadn't been there yet. First I 12. wrote on some cardboard, then I 13. cut some rope. Last, I left a sign saying, 14. "I Love you". The trap was set! I decided to 15. play with dolls before bed.

The next morning, guess what I found? A Leprechaun looking very 16. sad in my trap! He said his name was 17. TJ and he wished for me to let him go. If I did, he would give me his pot of gold and all the 18. dolls I wanted. I made him promise not to mess up my house too. He agreed and I let him go. Now I have a pot of gold, all the 18. dolls I could ever want, and I have never seen the Leprechaun again.