

Sight and Hearing JEOPARDY!

	The Outer Eye	Inside the Eye	How Sight Works	Why We Hear	Inside the Ear	Fascinating Facts
100	We see the light to see.	Light enters through the part of the eye.	Some light _____ to the brain about what you see.	We see the light to see.	Sound waves enter the _____.	Some eye cells that "seeing" helps you.
200	How can you see the part of the eye to help see light?	The part of the eye responsible when you are seeing.	This happens all of sudden and goes into your eye so you can see.	This sound waves to come back and forth quickly.	We can hear _____ in the brain about what you hear.	Some sound waves that people could do to get information.
300	The part of the back inside the middle of the eye.	The part of the back of the eye where a picture.	This area sends information about what you see to the brain.	To make a _____ picture.	The part of the ear where the _____.	Seeing from your nose you can do this.
400	When light enters the eye, the light gets _____.	Another name for a picture.	The eye helps you understand what you are seeing.	Soundwaves in the air are called _____.	Some cells are stimulated when going to the _____ electric lead.	People who are "misaligned" can see things that are _____.
500	This is the colored part of the eye.	The shape of this part of the eye allows to see things near and far.	The picture in your eye is actually _____ and when the brain takes it away it correct.	Sound waves in your ear, and the _____ is sound.	The nerve sends information about what you hear to the brain.	Some it says that you can hear better than a camera.