

Betsy McCall goes to the Country

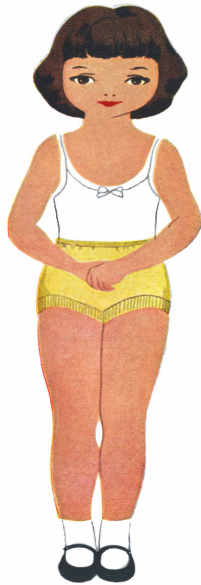

BETSY McCALL and her mother and daddy and Nobby, her little brown puppy, went on a visit to Grandmother! Daddy drove the car, and Betsy and Nobby and Betsy's oldest doll, Susan, sat in the back seat. Grandmother lives on a farm, and it took hours to drive there. So Betsy's mother packed lunch in a basket. They had fried chicken, red apples, chocolate cake and milk. Nobby had a dog biscuit to eat, and Betsy gave him a little bit of her cake. Susan, Betsy's doll, doesn't eat much but she likes to look out the window. When they got to the farm, Betsy ran to look at a little new lamb. The lamb ate some grass right out of Betsy's hand.

NEXT MONTH BETSY McCALL GOES SHOPPING

This is Betsy's father, James McCall, who is six feet tall

Betsy in her pretty yellow panties and her undershirt

Her bright red skirt that has trimming to match her striped shirt

Her shorts and shirt that she wears when she gathers eggs

Her clothes to wear when she helps Grandfather pull carrots

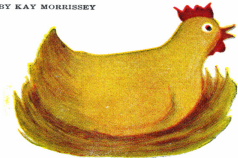

Betsy wore her denim cowboy skirt when she rode to Grandmother's

This is Susan, Betsy's doll, who's almost as old as Betsy

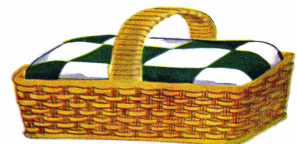

BETSY'S CLOTHES BY DERBY SPORTSWEAR
UNDERWEAR BY E-Z MILLS, INC.
SKETCHES BY KAY MORRISSEY

This is Cluck-Cluck, the hen Betsy's grandmother gave her

Betsy's cowboy vest that goes with her cowboy skirt

The picnic basket with chicken and big red apples and cake