

Betsy McCall goes to School

This month Betsy McCall is going to start school! And she's so excited she can hardly wait. Betsy already has her school dresses and loves them all so much she can hardly decide which is the prettiest. Last night Betsy's father brought her two presents . . . a pencil box and a big box of crayons to use when she draws! Betsy knows how to print her name, and she can count up to ten. And, best of all, Betsy already has met her teacher, Miss Stephens. She came to see Betsy's mother and she wears the prettiest clothes and has a lovely smile!

Next month Betsy and Barbara go to a dog show.

This is Betsy McCall

On Wednesday, Betsy thinks maybe she'll put on the plaid with petal cuffs

This is the dress Betsy wants to wear to drawing class on Thursday

This is Betsy's favorite dress that she'll wear the first day of school

Betsy has decided that on Tuesday she'll wear her navy dress with the white collar

On Friday Betsy will go to school in her dress with the striped skirt

DESIGNED BY KAY BOWLING

BETSY'S DRESSES BY YOUNG LAMB
AS STYLING LISTED ON PAGE 126

© 1970 BY THE MCGRAW-HILL BOOK COMPANY

For designs for a paper-doll with an outfit cupboard, and 100 in all, go to MOTHER'S SHOEWARE, McGraw-Hill, 1221 Ave. of the Americas, 1002 Queens St., Toronto 4, Ont.