

Holiday Finger Puppets

Use these cute finger puppets as awards for good behavior or completed work.

Simply color and cut out each puppet. Bend the puppet around your finger and tape into place.

Students will be eager to do creative writing assignments with these finger puppets as motivators.

Ask each child to choose a puppet and write a story about it. Students can act out their stories in front of the class.

