

Right/Left {Bridal Shower Game}

Jesse dated Jaclyn out on a date. The night of the date, he was so nervous he left his keys in the house. He ran right back in and found his keys on the counter, right where he left them. Jesse hopped right in the car and took a left out of the driveway.

Jaclyn was busy getting ready. She had to get her sock bun right, her makeup right, and had to pick out the right outfit. She left the house in a hurry because she was so excited. Jesse got out of the car and opened the right door of the car for her. As they left the house, she realized she had left her hair straightener on. Jesse took a right at the next light and drove right back to Jaclyn's house.

Jesse picked out the right restaurant. They had the right Riesling and the right non-spicy guacamole. After some drinks and apps, they left the restaurant to go home. Jesse dropped Jaclyn off at her door. He wanted to kiss her, but didn't know if the time was right. They said goodbye and he left.

When Jesse was down the street, he noticed Jaclyn had left her Tory Burch purse on the seat. Jesse went right back to give it to her. Right when Jaclyn opened the door, she gave Jesse a big kiss.

Right from the start, Jaclyn knew Jesse was Mr. Right. They fell in love right away and lived happily ever after!
