

Holiday Left Right Game

How to play:

Objective: Pass a gift (or ornament) wrapped to the left or right around the circle as the story is read. Lots of fun!

Players: 2 or more players (perfect for a very large group too)

Needed: Each participant should have an ornament or gift that has been wrapped.
