Deeper Than the Bluest Sea

The love that surrounds you and me,
Is deeper than the bluest sea,
Warmer than the brightest sun,
And there to shine for everyone.

The Perfect Fit

When I think of you and me,
I know that we were meant to be,
There's no one else the whole world through
That's a more perfect fit for me than you.

The Day I Met You

The day I met you,
I found my other half,
Together we'll walk,
Along life's winding path.

When the path grows rough,
And we stumble and fall
I'll cling to you, dear,
Because love triumphs over all.

No Other Heart

No other heart could ever inspire
So much love, and so much desire.

No other heart could beat tandem with mine,
Or light up the darkness and make it shine.

No other heart could ever be so true,
I don't say it enough, but I truly love you.
