

Me with You

By: 365greetings.com

I almost gave up in my life
with walls painted blue;
Till magnificent love
touches me through you.

Now we will face
the obstacles of life together.
I really want this to be a routine that will last forever.

When I was alone,
I can't stand on my own;
Then heaven sent you here
when the angels had flown.

Since then I become so stronger than ever;
Look up to my promise that I will leave you never.
