

Hi! It's me, the Easter Bunny and I've jumped on by to wish you a very HOPPY EASTER!

I hope you are egg-stremely egg-cited for the Easter treats left for you!

I'm sure you can't wait to eat your candy and chocolate, but don't gobble it all up at once! Remember to eat your carrots (and other vegetables and fruits) like I do!

I hope you have a lovely Easter, and I'll be back again next year!
