

The Doppelgänger's Curse

(This is another version based on the original version.)

Warning

*The Doppelgänger's Curse should not be taken lightly
I speak no long history out in some mind as not to understand reality if it all*

To Begin Your Curse

Get the black candle at the center in your space.
Place the hair in your glass and then after sweeping your feet down your chest up to the top and add the nail clipping.
Add enough purified water to wash them all around counter clockwise.
While the mirror is placed down your feet, concentrate on your face over it.
Now take one of your black ribbons and wrap around right to left. Take the second ribbon and wrap it top to bottom. When the mirror is covered take it face up and drop the hair from the black candle all over to seal and bind it.
Within a fortnight your Doppelgänger will find you. It will do your bidding as long as you have the mirror it's bound to.

Very Important

Keep the mirror in a secure place - If your doppel finds it you will become it's victim.

Items Needed:

A small clear or glass (and mirror over it)
2 lengths of black ribbon or cord
Purified water (enough to fill the glass)
A hair from your head (must be cut with scissors)
A washing glass

Nail clipping
6 White candles
A black candle
Sift

Preparation:

Open a circle and set two white candles at each point on the pentagram.
In the center set the black candle and mirror face down. Take a small amount of water your energy. Call the mirror and light the candles around the pentagram.
