

Playdough Mats

By: [Name]

These mats are designed to help children learn to write their names and practice their fine motor skills. Each mat features a large outline of a name for tracing and a smaller version for independent practice. The mats are made of playdough, which is a fun and tactile way to learn.

NAME

Tracing practice area with a large outline of the name and a smaller version for independent practice.

NAME

Tracing practice area with a large outline of the name and a smaller version for independent practice.