

Look Who's Coming

(Mark 11)

The people in Jerusalem laid clothing and palm branches on the road for the donkey and Jesus to walk on. They were so happy. He was coming to their city!

Cross out four palm branches. Next, cross out another two palm branches. When you are finished, count how many palm branches are left. Write that number on the big window of the building.

