Step by Step Organizing List

Home Organization Checklist

Start Big

- Locate a large area of organization.
- Separate items into piles of similar objects.
- Throw out (or donate) any item that:
 1. Has not been used for over a year
 2. No longer has a good use
 3. Occupies up more space than it's worth
- Determine what type of holder or bin would be suited for each object.
- Determine what type of shelf or furniture item would be best to hold the bins or containers.
- Make a shopping trip.
- Place each item into bins and containers that match its size and shape.
- Place the bins and containers on the shelf or furniture piece bought for this purpose.
- Start over with a new area.

Keep It Tidy

- Locate a set of drawers that drive you crazy.
- Take everything out of the drawers.
- Separate items into piles of similar objects.
- Throw out (or donate) any item that:
 1. Has not been used for over a year
- No longer has a good use
- Occupies up more space than it's worth
- Place all small items in decorative container.
- Leave space not clutter.
- Start over with a new surface.

Final Steps

- Locate a counter or furniture top that is in need of organizing.
- Clear off any items that do not belong.
- Throw out (or donate) any item that:
 1. Has not been used for over a year
- No longer has a good use
