Family	Go on at least one date per month with my husband (no kids allowed!).	Find a babysitter.
	Spend at least 15 minutes of quality time with my daughters everyday (no tv/phone/electronics).	Brainstorm times that we're free most days and pick one.
		Come up with a "back-up time" for days that our usual time doesn't work.
	Take Cameran and Isla on one-on-one dates once a month (with either me or Andy).	Make a list of potential activities to do with each girl.
		Schedule days/times for our outings in January.
