Who was responsible for the death of Jesus?

Was it the Romans?

"Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:"

(John 18:31)

"Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments..."

(John 19:23)

But why?

Although Jewish Pilate was governor of the land and knew Jesus was innocent, he caved to pressure. He didn't have any conviction. No backbone. No love.

Then Jesus was being rebellious here? No, not at all, as the Jewish mob was a mixture of Jews and non Jews. So why was Pilate so afraid of this mixture? He was under pressure from a large and continuously changing crowd of non Jewish people.

Was it the Jews?

"Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons."

(John 18:3)

"When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him."

(John 19:6)

But why?

Religious! Many Jews died at the religious leaders who loved ceremonial Jesus. They had created a long room for their followers. They had created images of what they thought a successful Jew and Jesus did not match up. We would be a mighty team of Jew and Jewish children for success Jesus followers among nations. Jesus preached power and love and were driven crazy when people got "strong power". The professional and orthodox Jews like Jesus were really Messianic would be. If the were allowed to carry on the world have the whole nation "turning their ancestral" Some of the world's leaders were bitterly jealous as well as disappointed that this man never took whatever human control. The Bible shows that there were personal forces of wickedness at work driving these terrible hatred to Jesus.

Was it the devil?

"And suppose Satan should cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand?"

(Luke 11:18)

"...I lead others to God's highest! the ways he gave Eve before the fall, the sons of Adam. And when the way Satan entered your lives."

(John 13:26,27)

But why?

Pride! And more jealousy! The devil knows that as humankind is walking hand in hand with Jesus being before Jesus entered this world. He was not content to simply be ruler and other God hated made him. He wanted more!

"Then said Jesus unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me."

(John 8:42)

"I will no more talk much with you, for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me."

(John 14:30)

But why?

Jesus! Jesus was me. That is why Jesus is speaking of gods love for the Jews

"All have sinned and have fallen short of God's standard."

In other words, we are all responsible. Jesus was living on our sinless we got the penalty. We gave sin and death to the son of the world.

Conclusion

Answering our three questions, we think

"Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:"

(John 18:31)

But why?

"Jesus answered, If I have told you earthly things, and you believe not, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?"

(John 3:12)

The Romans, the Jews, the devil, and even you and I are all implicated and ready to condemn. However, nothing would happen to Jesus unless God, his father, allowed it to be so. Therefore the ultimate condemnation is God, his father, appointed it to be so.

But why?

Love Him! The love of God is so unlike ours. We gave Jesus Christ's crucifixion. God's was sympathy. We see something that was going to happen to the future and having seen this event by a revelation from God, it was inevitable.

"I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live."

(Ezekiel 33:11)

But why?

Because He loves you.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

(John 3:16)

Forgiveness of sins is given the free gift of the Gospel message. Jesus conquered the powers of death and rose again. He promises that heaven and eternity are truly open with the power to change us. God has promised to give us a new heart and a new life so that we can rejoice with him and love as he does. The Bible says that Jesus' death gave us new covenants and a brand new way to relating with God and to each other. Jesus' love and compassion changed our lives.

"For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life."

(Romans 5:10)

Many have followed in the path have received forgiveness for their sins and everlasting life. You can too.

"The evangelical and experiential preacher, a lover of sermons, and an experienced walk, gospel and we shall see a move and Jesus Jesus today to see conscience, and we conceived that he was. Already the blood shows our people, and received our conscience and we did receive their conscience, and we of God, and suffered. And he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. He hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors."

Jesus was a sacrifice so suffering so much power. What kind of a God would ever demand such a sacrifice? Let it Have Come!

God wanted and still and wishes us to repent. He did not want even a enemy, but even his enemy. The Bible says "The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). That is, our sins has attained death towards the world because of sin has been a cause of spiritual deadness has come upon all men, which, if not reconciled, will have more eternally removed from God. We are separated by sin from Jesus his God!

"But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

(Romans 5:8)

But why?

Because he loves you.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

(John 3:16)
